MONEY, STOCKS AND GRAIN

Activity in Shares Owing to Confidence Entertained in the Future.

Investments Are Stimulated and New York Professionals Hopeful-At Indianapolis Fluctuations Were Narrow All Week.

THE BOND MARKET.

Railway Issues Duil but Firm, with Sales Down to $543,000. At New York, Saturday, money on call was nominally 4@5 per cent., closing offered at 5. Prime mercantile paper, 6@7 per cent. Sterling exchange was steady, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.864 @ 4.864 for sixty days, and $4.874 @4.88 for demand. The total sales of stocks were 176,600 shares, including the following: Atchison, 6,100; Burlington & Quincy, 5,400; Chicago Gas, 7,000; Delaware, Lackawanna, & Western, 6,800; Distilling, 18,200; National Lead, 5,300; National Cordage, 15,600; New England, 10,600; Reading, 4,800; St. Paul, 8,200; Sugar, 29,000.

The stock market was active and strong Saturday almost from start to finish. There were free purchases to cover short contracts, and the buying for the long account was characterized by a greater degree of confidence than has prevailed for some time. This was attributed to the fact that the April interest and dividend disbursements are expected to restore ease to the money market in a few days, and to the belief that railway business will be rmous for months to come on account of the world's fair. The April interest statement has also stimulated the investstocks and bonds. Professionals generally take a hopeful view of the situation, and experienced little difficulty in advancing prices Saturday. The decline in Distilling and Cattle-feeding of over 2 per cent., owing to the fact that the stock will no longer be in demand for election purposes, the transfer books having been used Saturday, failed to check the rising tendency of the general list. The rise otherwise was equal to 42@1 per cent., and the grangers were especially in demand. Buying was stimulated by the increase of $1,400,000 in the bank reserve, a loss having been generally looked for. At the close prices were is to 4 below the highest figpres attained, but the tone of the market was strong notwithstanding the announcement that the further sum of $1,000,000 gold has been engaged for shipment to Europe on Tuesday next. This makes $1,500,000 engaged up to the close of business Saturday. The sales aggregated 176,599 shares. Railway bonds were dull and firm. The sales were $543,000. Reading issues were quiet. Richmond Terminal Trust fives declined 1, to 46. Government bonds have been firm. State bonds were dull. Closing quotations were:

LCCAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

Saturday's Trade Was Quiet, with Prices in Some Lines Having a Downward Tendency. It being the first day of the month, trade was rather quiet Saturday, unless it be with the commission houses, the milder weather having largely increased their business. Provisions broke Saturday, and most descriptions of hog products went off 4c. and pork, different grades, 50c per barrel. The flour market is a little singgish, yet a decided improvement over the corresponding period last year. Everything in the vegetable line, except onions, are weaker in price, and eggs are weak at the quotations. Poultry and butter are both in light supply and very firm at prices quoted. The hide market is active, but prices do not improve with the increased activity. Leather dealers report trade good, and all lines of leather very firm, and the bardware men speak in much the same manner of their business.

Indianapolis elevators on Saturday last contained 142,865 bushels of wheat, agains $ 15,955 bushels corresponding date 1892; 131,353 bushels of corn, against 27,394 last year; 19,500 bushels of oats, against 78,691 first year, and 1,500 bushels of rye, against 1,000 last year.

The bidding on 'Change, Saturday, for both corn and oats showed more activity. but the disposition to pay lower prices on some grades of corn and oats was quite manifest. Take the week through the range of prices bid has not varied over 4c. Track bids Saturday ruled as follows: Wheat-No. 2 red, 614c; No.3 red, 62c; No. 4 red. 57c; rejected, 50c; unmer-

PORK CLIQUE WITHDREW

Its Abdication Became the Signal for Slump, Which Came with a Rush.

Pork and Lard Went Off $1 in Short Order and the Decline Spread Rapidly to the Grain Pits, Causing Heavy Losses There.

TRADING AT CHICAGO.

May Wheat Weakened Again, Declining

Full Cent with Corn. CHICAGO, April 1.-The great provision deal on the Board of Trade which for twelve months has kept the price of pork, lard and short ribs under the domination of two firms was loosened up to-day. Cudahy & Co. and N. K. Fairbank & Co., who have, since March, 1892, been in command of the provision market, have abdicated. They are satisfied, seemingly, with the $3,000,000 which they are said to have cleaned up on their twelve months' manipulation. The markets for provisions to-day, without the support which those firms have been in the habit of ing them, were extremely weak. There was a drop of $1 per barrel in pork and $1 per 100 pounds in lard. When the crowd saw that the hog meats were abandoned by their late supporters there was a general rush to unload, resulting in the heavy decline referred to. A. J. Wright, more familiarly referred to as "Charley" Wright, is one of the heaviest winners by the break, as he was among the biggest winners on the great advance of the summer and winter. He was also the originator of the big bull deal and was a limited partner in it, but withdrew when he thought prices had got as high as the circumstances warranted. He then took the bear side. The big drop in the price of provisions was the principal feature of the markets to-day. Everything else was similarly affected, but to a less depressing extent than the proclosing prices Thursday, the following are the losses sustained: Pork; 921/2c; lard, Wheat opened a little higher on some and contradictions of the early reports started free selling, which soon made prices weak. The subsequent break in provisions increased the depression in cereals, and on the down turn there was heavy liquidation, stop loss orders and ex-hausted margins, which carried May off 14c from the early figure. July went off about 4c. There seemed no support whatever for May, and not much for July. During the last hour the market was quiet and closed about 40 from bottom figures.

Corn opened a shade better, but there were liberal offerings, and prices soon started down with little subsequent recovery. Commission men had liberal selling orders, and on the weakness longs liquidated freely. John E. Lyon was the largest individual seller. In oats there was a good trade and a weak feeling, prices declining to the lowest point, the drop being 'so and the close at scabove the inside figures. The depression was due to sympathy with corn and to selling by longs. Hog products at times were almost panicky. The selling was enormous, with very little demand, except to cover shorts, and none of the big bulls showed any disposition to support the market, even on the big breaks. Selling out by the combine was generally accepted as the explanation.

Estimated receipts for Monday are: Wheat, 1(5 cars; corn, 100 cars; oots, 150 cars. hogs, 15,000. The leading futures ranged

How to Raise Sweet Pens.

Sweet peas look best in rows, do well next to the house or as a background for beds. They are just as easy to grow as garden peas, but to have them bloom early and to perfection requires a little preparation. Just as soon as the ground can be worked, which will be from the first to the last of April in the North, have a trench dug where you wish to plant your sweet peas. Put in a good lot of manure, wood ashes or any fertilizer that is most convenient; cover with a couple inches of soil, and sow the peas quite thick, covering them four or five inches deep. If the seed is sonked in warm water a couple of days they will get a week's start over dry ones. Sprinkle in a few mignonette seeds in front of your row of peas, covering lightly, and possess your soul with patience. For your peas are all safe and growing if they do not appear above ground for a month; the liberal manuring and deep planting being necessary to vigorous growth and prolific bloom. Our sweet peas treated in this way bloomed this season about the 20th of June.

Give support early of brush, string or wire netting, tying them up as they grow with bits of cloth so the wind will not twist the roots, and water well if you want them in perfection. Cut the flowers of both the mignonette and sweet peas freely every day, the more you cut the better they will bloom; they will die down like garden peas if allowed to form much seed. You can let a few pods from the choicest flowers ripen at a time, but only a few at once if flowers are wanted. It hardly pays to spoil a whole season's bloom for 10 cents worth of seed.

After they are planted they require but a small amount of care; just training to a support, some water, and clipping the faded blossoms, while they reward one with the daintiest colors and fragrance. wafting their sweetness through the open windows and blooming after most tender annuals are gone. I have picked quite a bouquet of them as late as the 10th of November.

Too Much Ancestry.

Kate Field's Washington. "You seem to have a great deal of trouble with your visiting list," exclaimed one woman to another. "I inherited mine," On applying for admission to the Colonial Dames and sending her pedigree the herress to a visiting list was refused, owing to the fact that she dated her ancestry back to the time when Virginia was a penal colony! An attractive bedspread may be made of Turkish toweling in a deep cream or ecru shape appliqued with red linen. A pretty design for such a spread is a border of large bowknots separated by festoons of ribbon, with the edges couched in red silk or cream

DAILY.

SUNDAY

The Journal's price for daily is only 15 cents a week, and it has a very wide circulation, reaching a large number of people hitherto unable to afford the luxury of a first-class daily paper. Reports from agents and subscribers indicate a continued increase, and that what used to be regarded as a luxury has become a necessity. The new readers not only remain, but they are constantly increasing.

It is the purpose of the Journal to make itself even more indispensable to its patrons, new and old, and to still further widen its field. To this end it will not only endeavor to maintain the characteristics which have established its reputation as by far the best newspaper in Indiana, but will add such new features and improvements from time to time as are in accord with journalistic progress and that may tend to the advantage of its readers. It will, for example, give increased attention to State and local interests. What Indianians want is a paper in which Indiana affairs are given especial prominence and importance. This want the Journal has always supplied as no other paper published outside or inside the State is able to do; but the rapidly developing industries and business and social enterprises of the community call for additional consideration and space, With this in view its corps of correspondents has been increased until it has a representative in nearly every town in the State. Special traveling correspondents will visit the news centers of the State at frequent intervals, thus insuring the "write up" of every important event or matter of general interest.

Being published in the geographical center of Indiana the Journal is afforded unusual facilities for securing news promptly, and, what is of greater consequence, is able to reach its subscribers without delay. The running of morning trains from Indianapolis is very favorable to the early distribution of papers sent by mail or express, and in most towns within a radius of a hundred miles Journals are delivered as early as in the city where they are printed. In the more remote counties there is but little loss of time in transportation.

The Journal is the paper for Indianians and particularly for Indiana Republicans. The change of administration involves the settlement of political problems likely to be of the most direct personal concern to every 1,200.00 farmer and business man in the State. All such matters will be set forth in detail, the Journal's Washington correspondent being instructed to give especial attention to everything having a possible bearing on Indiana interests. But though the Journal is Republican in politics it is non-partisan in the publication of news. Its constantendeavor is to secure facts unbiased by prejudice and to make its columns trustworthy records of each day's happenings. A large editorial force supplements the work of the press associations and the correspondents, and furnishes careful supervision for each department.

The Sunday Journal has a well-established literary character, superior to that of any Western paper. It is not defaced by "plate matter" nor filled with a heterogeneous mass of syndicate literature, but its contributions and miscellany are chosen with a view to their special fitness and adaptability to the tastes of the readers. The reading matter in any given number of the Sunday Journal is equal in quantity and is not inferior in quality to that found in the leading magazines. As an educational adjunct and a source of entertain. ment the Sunday Journal is indispensable in every well-regulated family.

The Weekly Journal, at $1 per year, contains more reading matter than can be obtained for the money in any other shape. It is carefully edited and offers the news of the week in condensed shape and a variety of miscellany, agricultural and household literature that render it one of the best investments that any family can make. Try it and see. It has a large circulation in this and other States and agents find it an easy matter to secure large lists of subscribers. Special inducements offered to agents.
